

Verse & Chorus Bass

A bass guitar tablature diagram consisting of four horizontal lines. The third line from the top is the primary staff, featuring a sequence of red numbers: 5, 5, 7, 7, 5, 5, 7, 7. The bottom line is a thick black line, and the first two lines above it are empty. Below the main staff, a series of purple numbers (8, 8, 8, 8, 8, 8, 8, 8) are aligned with the first eight measures of the red sequence. Vertical lines divide the staff into measures.

Measure	Red Numbers	Purple Numbers
1	5	8
2	5	8
3	7	8
4	7	8
5	5	8
6	5	8
7	7	8
8	7	8

BRIDGE: BASS TABS

A bass guitar tab diagram consisting of four horizontal lines representing the strings. The top line is the highest, and the bottom line is the lowest. The diagram is divided into 14 vertical columns by thin vertical lines. The first eight columns contain fret numbers. The first line (highest) has red numbers: 5, 4, 5, 4, 5, 4, 7, 7. The second line (middle) is empty. The third line (lowest) has purple numbers: 8, 8, 8, 8, 8, 8, 8, 8. The last six columns (columns 9-14) are empty for all lines.
